K. Kim Collins hails from the home of sunshine - Avon Park, FL. Kim became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Alpha Beta Zeta Chapter in April 2010. She transferred to Eta Pi Zeta Chapter in 2011, where she is currently the 3rd Vice President. She also briefly served as a member of the Nu Upsilon Zeta Chapter in her home state of Florida.

Growing up, Kim was an avid reader. This set the tone for her extensive educational pursuits where she'd eventually earn her Ed.S in Education and Leadership Administration from George Washington University in the Summer of 2011. Her heart for young people afforded her the opportunity to enrich the lives of youth from all walks of life, school districts and systems.

Kim's late father, Willie Collins, always said that her addiction to learning would one day allow her to serve others while walking as a "Finer Woman" in her purpose. True to his premonition, Kim is committed to Zeta's Founding Principles: Service, Scholarship, Sisterhood, and Finer Womanhood.

Kim has over 16 years of secondary education experience, from teaching Mathematics to managing faculty and program operations as an Assistant Principal. Currently, she is teaching post-secondary courses online to students like Dreamers who want a better life. One of her favorite quotes is, "Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today." - Malcolm X

Kim is an active member of the National Association of Colored Women, the NAACP, and the Silver Spring Church of Christ. She loves Carolina Panther's football, travelling, comedy, spoken word, and shopping. But most of all, Kim loves bringing a little "Ray of Sunshine" to all who encounter her, as a reminder that after the rain, there is always sunshine.

For all that she does, Soror K. Kim Collins is our Zeta Crush for this Wednesday

An Island Gal to da bone, Jannina S. Bryan was born and raised on the beautiful island of St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands. After graduating from high school (Big Up CAHS Class of 91), she attended the University of MD, College Park as a physical sciences major. Following in her sister's footsteps, she became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. through Eta Epsilon Chapter in the Spring 1993. She later transferred to Eta Pi Zeta Chapter in 1997.

Jannina has an MS in Project Management from the University of MD, University College. This has helped prepare her as the leader she is today. Her distinguished Zeta leadership track began from her time as an undergraduate, and grew exponentially with her holding numerous leadership positions throughout the sorority. She made chapter history when she served as president from 2009 through 2014, filling the position that was vacated by her sister who went on to become Maryland State Director; two sisters served as consecutive presidents of the same chapter.

Jannina is not just a leader, but a zeta-holic who has served in multiple capacities within the chapter and has provided 25 years of uninterrupted, financial service for the love of Zeta and community. Recognition for her hard work is evident by the numerous individual and chapter awards that followed.

Jannina will passionately defend the sisterhood from any negativity, believing that positive and truthful people help others grow and become better. If she is not handling the business of Zeta, Jannina is spending her time with family, close friends, and her kickboxing family at Bowie MMA. She also prepares the best jerk chicken, devilled eggs, and pina colada cake there is.

For all that she does, Soror Jannina Bryan is our Zeta Crush for this Wednesday!

Gwenneth Corujo is an island girl from St. Thomas, VI. She became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Chi Epsilon Chapter in 1989 at the University of Georgia, and has been an active member of Eta Pi Zeta Chapter since 1997. A natural leader, Gwenneth has served the sorority in multiple capacities, which included her tenure as the 9th Maryland State Director from 2009 – 2012. Currently, she is the president of the chapter for the second time; the first time was from 2004 – 2009.

Gwenneth received her BA in Criminal Justice from the University of Georgia and a master's in Public Administration from Bowie State University. Professionally, she is a supervisor at the Pretrial Services Agency for the District of Columbia where she supervises a unit of defendants with ongoing mental health challenges.

When it comes to her beloved sorority, Gwenneth pours her heart into the business of Zeta. Her motto is "if you are going to do something, do it to the best of your ability or don't do it at all." As an accomplished leader, Gwenneth believes in preparing the next generation of leaders, while paying homage to the leaders who came before her. This was evident when she established the Issie Jenkins Scholarship in honor of Eta Pi Zeta Chapter charter member--and founding member of the Zeta National Education Foundation (Z-NEF)--Soror Jenkins.

Gwenneth is passionate about community service and the development of others to be the best that they can be. She enjoys going to the movies, reggae and soca music, and spending time with her family.

For all that she does, Soror Gwenneth Corujo is our Zeta crush for this Wednesday!
